

Social and Personal

A MARRIAGE of much interest throughout the State, and especially in this city where the bride-elect is prominently related, is that of Miss Elizabeth Selden Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley McPherson, to Dr. George Carroll Rhodes, United States Navy, which takes place to-day at high noon in the home of the bride's parents in Elizabeth City, N. C. Only intimate friends and relatives will witness the ceremony which will be followed by a reception.

Owing to the prominence of both the bride and groom the event is one of more than ordinary interest. Miss Baxter is the great niece of Admiral and Mrs. Selden, of Washington, D. C., whom she has frequently visited at their summer home in Newport, and is a niece of Mrs. H. I. Cone and Miss May Selden. Dr. Rhodes has been stationed on board the United States steamship Scorpion near Constantinople.

Miss Mary Hope, of Norfolk, will be the bride's maid of honor and only attendant.

Among the out-of-town guests who will attend the wedding are Admiral and Mrs. H. I. Cone, Miss Elizabeth Cone, Mrs. Charles Wales, Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Hope, Miss Mary Hope, Mrs. A. B. Carney, Mrs. I. Branch Johnson, Miss Margaret Van Patten, Miss May Selden, Paymaster Van Patten and Leroy Williams.

House Party at "Rose Hill."

Mrs. Sue Buck entertained a party of friends at her beautiful country home, "Rose Hill," near Greenwood, Va., for the past week-end. The guests were members of the married set in Richmond, and several friends of T. C. Williams, Jr., who motored from Richmond to Greenwood in Mr. Williams' machine for the fourth.

Family Reunion at Mineola.

The seventeenth birthday of Mrs. D. Drewry, of Mineola, Chesterfield county, will be celebrated at a reunion that will bring the members of her family together in her home, many of them coming from a distance to be present on this occasion.

Mrs. Drewry's birthday party will be held at her home, where she has been called by F. K. Page, who rendered distinguished service to the Confederacy as a surgeon during the War Between the States. His daughter bears her years most gracefully, and is a typically Southern woman and hostess. Among those from a distance attending are Mrs. Drewry's birthday party will be Mr. and Mrs. Deford and family, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Ogden and family, of New Orleans; Mrs. Bertrand and children, of Richmond; Mrs. Rosenberg, of Galveston, Tex.; Mrs. Charles Macgill, of Madison, Va.; and Mrs. Macgill, of Virginia.

Returned to Petersburg.

Mrs. William Stone Hutton and Miss Grace Blinford, who have been spending the week-end in this city as the guests of the bride's mother, Mrs. William T. Adkins, at her home, 1704 Park Avenue, have returned to their home in Petersburg, Va. Mrs. Hutton is most pleasantly remembered here as Miss Maudie Lynch before her marriage several years ago.

Parties Leaving for Europe.

Miss Martha Harvie, of Danville, arrived in Richmond Sunday to join a party of friends here and spend the summer abroad. They expect to sail from New York Thursday morning, landing in Antwerp, where they will be joined by another party of friends, who sailed earlier in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tams went to New York yesterday and will sail from that place on Saturday on the steamship Caronia, of the Cunard Line, for Liverpool. They will spend some time traveling through England, Ireland and Scotland before visiting the Continent.

Mrs. Henry Daingerfield and Miss Katherine Daingerfield have gone abroad for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Beaman will

NEGRO INSULTS GIRL.

Frightened Away by Screams, but Is Caught Later and Jailed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., July 6.—Milton Montgomery, colored, is in jail charged with insulting Miss Ruth Sanford, daughter of Charles R. Sanford, while she and two other girls were on their way home late last night from an entertainment. The negro concealed himself behind the porch, and as the girls came along he leaped out, grabbing Miss Sanford. The screams of the young woman caused him to flee, but he was captured and jailed.

Sanctuary into a cigar store last night, Charles Thomas, a young negro, declared he was as good as any white man and did not care who knew it. Refusing to leave, he was set upon by George Shannotta, a young white man, of small stature, and before five minutes he had been severely beaten.

He was taken to the hospital, but his injuries are not serious.
